

From The Board

Jimmy Sarver, Club President

July went off like a firework and was a very month at LCC. Members got to play in Bucks and Does, Member/Member, Intermediate College Night as well as our Senior and Ladies Club Championship! It was a very tough month from a weather stand point. Extreme heat as well as excessive rain challenged our grounds crew and forced them to change maintenance plans on the fly. Thankfully, they have done a wonderful job maintaining the course as beautifully as they have all year long!

Ladies Golf News

Summer finally arrived in July along with a deluge of rain.

The Queen Bee/Lady Bug tournament took place on July 11 and July 18. The best net score per hole over the two days determines the winner. The red tees were used for The Queen Bee and the orange for the Lady Bug.

JoAn Treskovich retained the Queen Bee crown and the use of the royal wave by shooting a low net of 62. It was her third win in four years. Carolyn Morford placed second with a net 69.

Barbara Sloan won the Lady Bug with a net 69. Becky Demuth posted a 71 for second place.

The Member-Member, scheduled for July 25, was postponed for a variety of reasons. This event has been rescheduled for August 15. The Greens Game was substituted. This was an individual event based on points earned for chip-ins and putts.
1st Place: Darlene Elliott with 23 points
2nd Place: Steph Trozzo with 22 points

The Ladies Classic on August 8, hosted by Denise Smail, is the major event next month

Dear Members,

We hope you are enjoying your summer as much as we are but wow how times flies!

July was a theme month for us it seemed as we had our Yellowstone themed Member-Member, Christmas in July Bucks & Does and our College Style Intermediate Night. No matter the theme, each one was filled with participants and a whole lot of fun!
