

President's News June 2024

June is finally here and I wish I could so is the nice weather but it has been anything but that this year! According to WESA, we are on pace for the wettest year ever! As of May 15th, we're well over 20" of rainfall for the year already, with our yearly average being 38.8". This year has seen more rain than our last record year of 2018. The weather has been dismal to say the least! With that being said, thank you to our wonderful grounds crew! They have the course looking amazing considering the terrible weather conditions! I would like to take a minute to share a note that a guest shared with the board about his recent experience at LCC!

Subject: Lignier [sic] CC Playday May 21

I don't send out an email to clubs or the WPGA after events very often ... I just wanted to pass along this note regarding our playdays at Ligonier CC ... While not country clubbers ... our group plays many of the generous clubs in Western PA through the WPGA.

We had 8 golfers there yesterday ... with only 2 last minute 'bail outs' that we couldn't fill. In years' past we've had more ... and after we tell our group of our round yesterday, I think we'll have more in the fall event.

We can give the weather some credit for the great conditions ... but, I add that ... We found the course and the greens at Ligonier CC in great condition ... very well taken care of. We found the 'gently rolling hills' and rather open feel of the course to be very enjoyable. And the sand traps were the best of any club we've played this year; or in a long time. (At least this is what some of the players told me).

One additional benefit that most of our guys enjoyed was 'sharing' their best, and worst, shots with playing partners. The management and staff at Ligonier CC made us feel 'welcome'. The price with a sleeve of Chromesofts as gift was a nice surprise, and very reasonable. We enjoyed it thoroughly.

We will pass along our experience at Ligonier CC to the others in our large WPGA group. Thanks for opening up the course for us yesterday.

June looks to be a fun filled month as we start to kick off summer! We start the month off with a bang when members will compete in the Men's Invitational on June 6th through the 8th. Men's Invitational is one our flagship events and is always a huge hit with our members and guests. A couple weeks later, Sean is hosting our always popular College Night! Please join us for a fun evening of Pong, College Food and so more! This is one of my personal favorite events of the year. Don't have too much fun reliving your college days though because we quickly follow that up the next day with our annual Father's Day event. Bring dad up for a fun day of golf at LCC. I'm sure he'd love that!

From the Social Committee

We have two great events for all memberships this month.

Friday, June 7th the Men's Invitational Dinner is available to all members, but will be limited seating. Leather and Lace will be performing and our kitchen staff is preparing a great buffet with prime rib, lobster rolls and more, all for $50. Call the grill room to make your reservation.

Saturday, June 22nd with be Bourbon and Cigar Night on the patio at 5 pm. Make your reservation with Michael at ext 6.

Keep an eye out for emails for more details on these events.

Ladies Golf News June 2024

The start of May turned out to be not much better than April.

Rain, or the threat of rain, plus the Western match play left us without a quorum on May 7 and 14. The Three Little Pigs and Tee to Green resulted in no payouts.

May 23 was a no gadget day as there was an outside outing.

The Best Approach was played on May 28, with a quorum. The closest to the pin with the last shot to the green got 3 points, the second closest earned 2 points and the third received 1 point.

1st Place- Robin Giunta (32 points) Tied 2nd Place- Carolyn Morford & Enis Cassill (31 points)

The main event in June is the King & Queens on Tuesday, June 11. Always a favorite, the event is hosted by Pat Warren. Please sign up in the Pro Shop as soon as possible so Pat can recruit the proper number of kings.

The other June event is Beat the Pro on June 25. This event was canceled due to rain for the previous two years, so it was moved to June in hopes of sunny weather.

ICYMI from May's News:

As we approach summer hours, we'd like to remind the membership and inform our new members of a few things:

We try to hold to the published calendar as much as possible, but as a golf course, we are beholden to the weather. We will do our best to inform you of changes to the hours and service locations as early as possible.

When service is scheduled for outside or inside, you may still dine in the other areas with advanced reservations.

Dinner reservations are always required by 4 pm. We reserve the right to close up to an hour early if there are no reservations, or according to play. On the flip side, we will stay open for those who will finish their round by closing time.

Take out may be limited during busy times or when we are full for reservations (often after 6 pm later in the month). You can always place a take out earlier in the day for a pick up time prior to 6 to ensure your spot.

Golf outings [have begun]. Last year we were able to keep dining service interruptions to just a few closures and always strive to have something open for the members when there are events. Please don't assume we are closed because there is an event. Be sure to regularly confer with the calendar for service location and times throughout the year. Thank you in advance for your understanding of the importance of these events to the continued operation of the club and patience with us should an event need to restrict service.

Golf outings also do not close the course all day. A larger outing can take about 5 hours on the course, so take the published shotgun time, add five hours, and you'll have an idea of when you can get out on the course afterwards. A limited number of morning tee times are generally available, first-come first-serve. Golfers will be asked to exit the course 15 minutes prior to the event's shotgun time if they are not finished.

Lastly, please remember tee times are always required. The shop may open and close according to booked tee times. See From the Pro for the current shop times.

Golf Shop Information

NEW- Golf Shop Major Challenges

NEW for this year, the Golf Shop will run Fantasy Golf Pools throughout the year. We have already hosted a Master's, PGA Championship and currently the Women's US Open.

Click our unique link to sign-up and for details. <http://www.majorschallenge.com/club/ligonier>

RULES & INFORMATION:

Choose 12 golfers for your team. You will see the entire field listed and broken down into divisions based on world ranking. In each grouping you will choose the specified number of players PLUS 1 alternate in case someone was to withdraw.

ONLY YOUR TOP 10 SCORES WILL COUNT FOR YOUR FINAL SCORE. YOUR WORST TWO OVERALL SCORES WILL BE THROWN OUT, WHICH GIVES EVEN MORE PEOPLE A CHANCE TO WIN. This will allow you to take a chance on a true wildcard if desired.

During the tournament, the Majors Challenge leaderboard updates in real-time with the actual event. Your score is the cumulative to-par score for the top 10 golfers on your team through 4 rounds. Your worst two players' scores will be thrown out.

Cut, Withdraw and MDF Rules:

Alternate Substitution: Teams will receive their alternate substitution if a golfer withdraws during Round 1 or 2 or decides not to play.

No Alternate Substitution: Golfers withdrawing during Rounds 3 or 4 will turn into a CUT (same as existing rule). Golfers that are DQ'd at any time during the event are also considered a cut.

- If more than one golfer in a group withdraws before start of play then your team will receive an alternate for the first WD and a CUT for any additional WD.
- As you will see below, you want winners, but you NEED people to make the cut
- You will receive the worst four round score in place of every golfer on your squad that:
 - o is CUT or is MDF
 - o Withdraws in Round 3 or 4 after making the cut
 - o is Disqualified

All entries MUST be submitted on the website before play begins on Thursday morning.

More players may be added to the field this week, but you can adjust your team up until Thursday morning.

$25 Entry charged to your member account, or you may pay CASH
